TO:	All Competitors		TIME:	12:00

INSTRUCTIONS FOR DRIVERS AND COMPETITORS

Please be informed that the following appendices have been prepared to provide you with clear and practical information regarding several important locations within the event area:

1. Appendix 1 – CIRCUIT MAP WITH MOST IMPORTANT OBJECTS

   Circuits map includes the locations of all the most important objects within the event area.

2. Appendix 2 – LOCATION OF THE DRIVERS' BRIEFING & MEETINGS

   The Drivers' Briefing will take place on Friday, 11 September 2026, in the white tent next to the Scrutineering Area:

   – 18:30 – FIRST PART – for all Drivers;

   – 19:00 – SECOND PART – for Drivers competing in the Championship for the first time this season.

3. Appendix 3 – LOCATION OF THE DRIVERS' PARADE

   The Drivers' Parade will be organised as follows:

   – 19:45 – Meeting point in the Pre-Grid area.

   – Drivers or mechanics will drive the race cars from the circuit to Point A in the town of Maggiora (approximately 1 km from the circuit), where the Drivers' Parade will start, and the parade will then proceed to Point B, as indicated in Appendix 3.

   – The cars will be grouped in the following national order:

   Austria, Belgium, Czech Republic, France, Germany, Hungary, Israel, Latvia, Luxembourg, Netherlands, Slovakia, Spain, Switzerland, Italy.

   – Mechanics and other team members can also participate in the parade.

   – National and promotional flags may be used during the parade to increase its visibility and promote the event.

   Please be punctual to avoid delays and follow the organiser's instructions at all times. As the parade will take place on public streets, it is strictly prohibited to hang onto or ride on the outside of the race cars.

Sincerely,

Gunars KOSOJS
Race Director
