INSTRUCTIONS FOR DRIVERS AND COMPETITORS

Please be informed that the following appendices have been prepared to provide you with clear and practical information regarding several important locations within the event area:

1. Appendix 1 – CIRCUIT MAP WITH MOST IMPORTANT OBJECTS

   Circuits map includes the locations of all the most important objects within the event area.

2. Appendix 2 – LOCATION OF THE DRIVERS' BRIEFING & MEETINGS

   The Drivers' Briefing will take place on Friday, 18 September 2026, in the building next to the Pre-Grid and the Scrutineering Area:

   - 18:30 – FIRST PART – for all Drivers;
   - 19:00 – SECOND PART – for Drivers competing in the Championship for the first time this season.

3. Appendix 3 – LOCATION AND ROUTE OF THE DRIVERS' OR NATIONS PRESENTATION

   The Drivers' or Nations Presentation will be organised as follows:

   - 12:50 – Meeting point in the Pre-Grid area. Drivers and teams are kindly requested to arrive at least 10 minutes before the scheduled start time, so that the Drivers or Nations Presentation can start promptly at 13:00 on Sunday, 20.09.2026.
   - Drivers will drive the race cars for a half lap of the circuit, starting through the Start line, through Turn 1, and after Turn 2 exiting the track via the regular track exit, as indicated in Appendix 3.
   - The cars will be grouped in the Pre-Grid area in the following national order:

     Andorra, Austria, Hungary, Israel, Latvia, Spain, Luxembourg, Belgium, Italy, Switzerland, Czech Republic, Germany, Netherlands, France.

   - Mechanics and other team members can also participate in the parade.
   - National and promotional flags, as well as team attributes, may be used during the parade to increase its visibility and promote the event.

   Please be punctual to avoid delays and follow the organiser's instructions at all times. As the parade will take place on public streets, it is strictly prohibited to hang onto or ride on the outside of the race cars.

Sincerely,
Gunars KOSOJS
Race Director
