Ignore these times - these are the competitor's responsibility.

You are stage 2 arrival control (ATC). You record here the time, dropping the seconds, that the competitor hands the card to you.

You are stage 2 start line. You record here the actual time for the competitor to start the stage. The competitor is entitled to a minimum of 3 minutes between arrival time and stage start time.

You are stage 2 finish control (FTC). You record here the split time from your clock/watch when your finish line worker called 'mark!' for this competitor.

Assume that you are Arrival Time Control (ATC) card handler at the start of stage 2, 'SS2'. Record the competitor's ATC check-in time (the time the card is handed to you) in the 'ARRIVAL' column box. Record time as hours and minutes, dropping the seconds.

Assume that you are the start line card handler at the start line of stage 2, 'SS2'. Record the actual start time you've assigned for this competitor in the 'START' column box, as shown above. Be sure to add the 3 minutes between arrival time and start time that each competitor is entitled to. Record time as hours and minutes, disregarding seconds.

Assume that you are the Finish Time Control (FTC) card handler at the FTC car 2, 'SS2'. Record the finish time you logged for this competitor when your finish line called 'mark!' as he crossed the finish line. Record full hours, minutes and seconds.

Record hours in 24 hour format (i.e., 1:00 PM is 13:00, 2:00 PM is 14:00, etc.)
