The entry form for the FIA European Rallycross Championships for RX1, RX2e and RX3 is here:

<https://registrations.fia.com/europeanrx>

If you previously used the FIA entry form your login should continue to work.

If you are a new user click the “Create and account” link.

If you cannot remember your password click the “Forgot password” link.

Championship regulations are available from the FIA website.

The calendars for the Championships are available on the official championship website.

I have also included a table below to show the closing dates for entries and the last testing day for each event.

World Championship entries are managed differently, the relevant documents will be provided soon.

We look forward to receiving your entry and will provide further information about the championship and the events when you have entered.
