

We hope you had an exciting, fun, and rewarding 2026 Oregon Trail Rally. As we begin to set our sights on 2027, we could use your input on what went well, and what areas can be improved. The best way to help us with that is if everyone would fill out the survey in the link below. This information helps OTR gain sponsors, enhances our relationship with local communities, and gives you a chance to tell us how we can make our event that much better for next year.

A message from your Oregon Trail Rally Chairs:

"To our volunteers, team captains, competitors, and teams: thank you for making Oregon Trail Rally possible. Your time, dedication, professionalism, and passion are what make this event special. We were thrilled to welcome so many new faces and volunteers stepping into new roles this year. Whether you worked, competed, led, or supported, thank you for choosing to spend your weekend with us. We couldn't do it without you." — Casey Jones, Co-Chair, Oregon Trail Rally

"Oregon Trail Rally is a great deal of work to organize, but it is a labor of love. It's made easy by people that support it, as well as, compete in it. The best part is seeing the smiles of competitors, volunteers, sponsors and organizers. So thank you all for your expertise, enthusiasm, devotion and most of all happy faces. Hope to see you next year. Organizing for 2027 starts soon!" - Renee Damm, Co-Chair, Oregon Trail Rally

"Thank you all for making the 2026 Oregon Trail Rally a resounding success! As a first time Co-Chair for this major event, I relied heavily on the knowledge of our previous chairs, core organizers, and seasoned volunteers. It was amazing to so many step up to take on new roles and do it with an infectious enthusiasm that energized everyone around them. I'd like to extend a special thanks to my other co-chairs Renee Damm and Casey Jones, you both went above and beyond and it's been extremely humbling to join you at the helm of this amazing team. And to all the other volunteers, chiefs, and organizers, you are such a special group and I can't thank you enough for all your efforts. Every year you make all this work worthwhile. To the competitors, we all do this so you can put on a good show, and you didn't disappoint! Even though we weren't a national event, you couldn't tell with the amazing performances put in over the weekend. Let's do it again next year!" - Mike Shaw, Co-Chair, Oregon Trail Rally
