

2023 Killarney International Rally of the Lakes Demonstration Run Regulations

- The Demonstration Run will take part on SS1, SS2, SS6, SS7 and SS8 on Leg 1 before heading back to Killarney for an overnight halt. On Leg 2 they will take part on SS11, SS12, SS15 and SS16 before heading back to the finish ramp.
- The Demonstration Run will run as per Appendix 25.5 of the current Motorsport Ireland Yearbook.
- Both occupants of Demonstration Run cars must possess a current competition licence of the following grade. Drivers must hold a minimum of National B (or ASN equivalent). Co-Drivers must hold a Navigators Licence. IRDS/BRDS compulsory for Drivers. No IRDS/BRDS, no start.
- No Competitors Personal Accident cover is provided for the drivers and navigators in the Demonstration Run as they are not considered competitors. Permit and Insurance charges will apply.
- All demonstration cars are fully subject to passing scrutiny requirements. Checks will be of a general safety nature and will take into account the age and period of the vehicle and the requirements of that time. Checking will take place at scrutiny at Randles Garage, Muckcross Road on Friday 28th April from 13.30 to 14.00. An event scrutiny sheet will be completed in respect of each vehicle and a record maintained.
- Crews must attend a Competitor Safety Briefing. Time and place will be confirmed via a bulletin on Sportity.
- No start times should be issued at the start of the stages, but the group should be controlled by using the time controls along the route so that we can assure that they remain under the control of the club.
- The PPE of the driver and navigator will be the same as that of the main field in respect to national cars – i.e. current national rules apply in respect of items such as suits, boots, gloves etc. HANS devices are not compulsory but are strongly recommended.
- The Stewards of this meeting will monitor this very closely on the day of the event.
- Demonstration Run cars will be required to be fitted event safety trackers.
- Entrants must submit Entry Forms by 14/04/2023 @ 16:00
- Entry fee: €595 (incl. IRDS and tracking)
