

Competitor Notice

Important notice from the COC:

Due to the overwhelming interest in this years rally entries are at a record high.

The closing date for payment is Friday 14th April – if you have entered and will not be competing please contact us immediately as there are numerous competitors who are eager to compete.

Regretfully, if you have not paid your entry by the payment deadline, you will be placed on the reserve list.

Thank you to all the competitors who have paid to date.

It's going to be a great weekend of rallying!
