8 In the Forest – Think about where you are

- Tracks may be marked with flagging tape or other markers; however, steel nails or screws must not be used to attach markers to trees, due to the danger caused to operators when trees are milled. Tracks should not be marked with permanent paint.
- There are several Apiary Sites in the area of the rally. Access to apiary sites must not be altered or impeded. If hives are present, vehicles should not disturb the hives or stop near the site to prevent the chance of bee stings.
- Eagles displaying stress, breeding activity or disturbance such as being vocal (screeching), pothooking (aggressive swooping), or flushing from the nest should be reported to Rally Command.
