RALLY GUIDE

(as at 08 October 2023)

1 Int. ADMV-Lausitz-Rallye – Three. Two.. One... Gravel

Noisy engines, hot tires, and a challenge to every pilot on the best-prepared gravel roads in Germany ... that's the Lausitz-Rallye - the ultimate gravel rally in Germany and Central Europe with unique almost 100% gravel roads where every Rally Fan - and those who want to be - gets grass, dust and mud may fly around his ears.

Top drivers from Germany and 30 other European countries have a hard nut to crack on our perfectly prepared stages. We have already seen involuntary water crossings, jumps where the distance measurers almost capitulated, drifts on the edge of physics and smoking timekeepers. Each team is fighting bitterly for every tenth of a second and challenges material and vehicle.

After the 25th anniversary of the International ADMV-Lausitz-Rally last year, the next round will take place on the second weekend of November. Around Boxberg/O.L. this event provides top-class motorsport. The FIA European Rally Trophy (ERT) and the FIA Junior ERT 4 Trophy give their guest appearance in the Lusatia. But also the DMSB Gravel-Rally-Cup, the ADMV-Rallye-Championship, the Gravel-Cup and Rally Championship of will also stop in Lusatia again.

The ARENA, which is unique in Germany, is a spectacular highlight for drivers and spectators equally for eleven years. On natural grandstands the spectators line the artificially created crest downhill, the crest followed by a drift curve and a water crossing. You have to experience the gravel stones crackling in the fenders of the rally cars and the top pilots heading towards the curves, braking hard as late as possible and heaving their racing cars around the bend in a breathtaking drift angle. In the next moment they speed away in the forest with a dull babbles.

The center of the action with service park, Parc Fermé and infopoint are the "Sternencamp Bärwalder See, on the Boxberg/O.L. side of the lake and the rally headquarters with rally secretariat in the tourist information centre (TIZ) "Bärwalder See" on the shores of the Bärwalder See. The trailer parking space will be on the parking area – Alter Lidl Südstraße. Administrative checks and scrutineering of the competition cars will be carried out in the fire station of the voluntary fire brigade in Boxberg/O.L. The starting shot for this year's edition will be on Friday, 10th November 2023 at 15:30 o'clock at the TIZ "Bärwalder See" where also the first rally car will roll over the finish ramp on Saturday, 11th November 2023 at 17:08 o'clock and the winners will be announced received their crowns and trophies at the podium ceremony.

The first leg – two special stages with 18,54 km SS are to be driven on Friday. On Saturday are still 6 special stages with a total of 88,11 km SS on the program.

At this stage we would like to thank our local authority Boxberg/O.L. in advance, especially our new mayor Mr. Hendryk Balko and the local councils for their generous assistance in the preparation of our event. Also the voluntary fire brigades from municipality Boxberg/O.L. are secure partners since the first Lausitz-Rally. Already many thanks!

Now we want to wish an exciting and eventful weekend at our 26th International ADMV Lausitz-Rallye to all participants, spectators, sponsors and supporters.

Wolfgang Rasper
Chairman of the organising committee

2 History and facts of the Lausitz-Rallye

2.1 History of the Lausitz-Rallye

The 1st Lausitz-Rallye on 11th of November 2000 was the beginning of a new age of motor sport around Boxberg/O.L. It was a 100% gravel rally.

At the beginning the Lausitz-Rallye was a Rally 200 with 35 km special stages but it took a rapid development. Already the 4th Lausitz-Rallye was a "2 in 1 Even" – with a National A and a Rally 200 category.

As sign of appreciation for our continuous organisational work and because of the excellent conditions of Germany's best gravel stages, we received the approval to host the final round of the German Rally Championship in 2004.

With a „Small Lausitz Rallye“, a Rallye 200, the Rallye-Renn- & Wassersport Club Lausitz e.V. in the ADMV has hosted the ultimate gravel experience for amateur drivers in the summers of 2013 and 2014.

The ADMV-Lausitz-Rallye has also earned an excellent international reputation. By now, besides the 1223 German competitors, 737 drivers and co-drivers from 29 nations have participated at least once at the ADMV-Lausitz-Rally, many teams several times. A run for the European Rally Trophy has been announced since 2015, and for the third time the Rallye-Renn- & Wassersport-Club Lausitz e.V. is allowed to host the finals in the ADMV. The Final of the European Historic Sporting Rally Championship has been the highlight at the 20th anniversary of the ADMV-Lausitz-Rally. So the ADMV-Lausitz-Rallye is the second most important rally in Germany next to the ADAC Rally Germany.

2.5 The Region

(Source: Internet)

2.5.1 Municipality Boxberg/O.L.

Boxberg/O.L. was first documented in 1366. Boxberg/O.L. is divided into 18 districts. Approximately 5300 residents live on 217 km². They thus are forming the largest area community of the Free State of Saxony. In confined spaces the municipality Boxberg/O.L. offers utmost diversity – scenic, architectural, technical and human.

Despite decades of lignite mining the town still lies in one of the most densely wooded areas in Germany. The unique heathland with the floodplains of the rivers Spree and Schwarzer Schöps, as well as industrial sites, such as lignite-fired power plant and strip mining's exude a special charm that is difficult not to succumb. In deep pine forests you can observe wild wolves who settled here again in recent years. Idyllic meadows, streams, rivers and lakes invite every visitor to relax.

The largest lake in Saxony – the "Bärwalder See" is in the northwest of the 217 km² area of the municipal area I. It has an area of 13 km² and is increasingly developing as a sailing and surfing paradise. Athletes, visitors and guests will appreciate the good surrounding conditions and infrastructure in and around the "Landscape Park Bärwalder See". This undoubtedly includes the 21.1 km long paved path around the lake with a connection to the neighbouring cities Boxberg/O.L., Klitten and Uhyst and the port on Klitten shore or boat docks in Boxberg/O.L. and in Uhyst.

Beautiful sandy beaches arisen for the swimmers are at all locations - Boxberg/O.L., Uhyst and Klitten. At the beach of Boxberg/O.L. next to the textile beach there is an area for nudists.

But Boxberg/O.L. has more highlights – amongst others the largest human ear modelled from sand masses. You can pass it on a loop road of approximately 1,000 m and you will have a beautiful view over the Bärwalder See. In the pinna is located an amphitheatre with 270 seats. In the summer months numerous cultural events take place there. The last of 26 "Floating houses" were installed on the water side of Klitten and they invite to spend the holidays on water.

Further information about the "Bärwalder See" you find here www.baerwalder-see.eu

RALLY GUIDE

On a guided tour through the lignite power station Boxberg/O.L. operated by the LEAG (Lausitz Energie Kraftwerke AG), you can gaze at the modern technology and its enormous dimensions. The working in base load operation power plant originally went with 3,520 MW at the start. Already in 1968 here was laid the foundation for well into the 90's in Germany's largest lignite power plant. In the period from 1992 to 1995 the two 500-megawatt blocks (plant III) were retrofitted with the latest environmental technology and upgraded for an indefinite continued operation. The 12 x 210 megawatt plants (plant I and II) were gradually shut down and built back. As part of a replacement a 900-megawatt single-unit plant was built. This is feeding safe and highly efficient lignite electricity into the grid since 2000. Due to rising energy demand, it became necessary to build a 640 megawatt block once again.

Architecturally enthusiastic visitors should in any case visit the grist wooden chapel (Schrotholzkapelle) built in 1780 in Sprey, the castles in Uhyst and Bärwalde, and the estates of Kringelsdorf, Mönau and Reichwalde. In the district Uhyst, families may marvel at the Reptile House and the Safari Wildlife Park.

In the district Nockten Lusatian Findling Park, that is unique in Europe, invites nature lovers to linger. The bike paths Spreeradweg, Herrmannsdorfer Radweg and Wolf Radwanderweg offer a light reaching of destinations.

2.5.3 Places of interest around Boxberg/O.L.

Lausitzer Findlingspark Nockten

Around 3,000 boulders - 600-1000 million years old - have been arranged on an area of about 20 ha with various heathers, cacti, many rare plants and precious woods to a fantastic garden. The new information and visitor centre offers the hospitality and sanitary area also several rooms for exhibitions and conferences.

Safari- Wildrevier Uhyst

The Wild Safari Park is located in an interesting post-mine landscape. Here you can feed and caress real lamas, go on a jeep tour or face deer very close. In addition to classic jeep safaris and night safaris, observations from a high seat or track search are offered in winter. Project and hiking days can be booked by schools; anniversaries can be celebrated there on request, which means beautiful hours in nature with the entire birthday bevy. Gift certificates with a safari plus feeding are a nice present for families or friends.

Lausitzer Bergbaumuseum Knappenrode

Located just outside the town of Hoyerswerda - between Knappenrode and Silbersee - is the former briquetting plant Knappenrode. From 1918-1993 briquettes were pressed here. Today, visitors can experience the mining of yesterday, today and tomorrow of the Lausitz Mining Museum on an approximately 250,000 m² area. In one of the many exhibition complexes, the largest shaft frame of the Lausitz that symbolises the underground mining can be seen.

Waldeisenbahn Muskau

The beginnings of Muskau Forest Railway dates back to 1895. At this time the rich forests and natural resources of Muskau arch were opened and at the end of the 19th century lignite mines, brickyards, sawmills, paper mills and glass factories were created in the area between Muskau and Weißwasser that have been connected with a Pferdebahn with 600 mm gauge built by the Muskau lordship, Count Hermann von Arnim. 1991, the District Office Weißwasser decided to rebuild the forest railway with the help of grants and job creation schemes as a tourist attraction again. 1992 the line already went back into operation to the park community Kromlau, initially with diesel locomotives from disused industrial railways and for passenger converted open wagons. In the own workshop also covered cars emerged.

Fürst Pückler Park Bad Muskau and Kromlauer Park

The Muskauer Park offers extraordinary natural experiences: sprawling lawns, majestic trees, winding paths, picturesque lakes and rivers, unique bridges and buildings. You can explore this paradise on foot, by horse-drawn carriage, bike or boat. What appears as naturally grown, is created by a firm hand landscape - a garden artwork of Prince Hermann von Pückler-Muskau. In summer 2004 the landscape of art of the Prince has been included in the list of world cultural heritage by UNESCO.

In the neighboring village of Bad Muskau, another park was created in 1844 by landowner von Rötschke and extended from 1889 by Graf von und zu Egloffstein. This had also provided the park with a large collection of azaleas and rhododendron cultivars. Today the Kromlau Park with its unique arch bridge over the Rakotzsee is the largest free range rhododendron park in Germany.

Bautzen – the town of towers

In Bautzen there is plenty to see and do. Bautzen is best known for its old town with its many towers. Bautzen is the center of Oberlausitz. The uniqueness of the town comes from the diversity of her charms - a preserved local beauty spot and advanced in the renovation historical Old Town, interesting German and Sorbian cultural life, a varied tourist region. The town on the river Spree is developing to a modern and attractive service, economic and residential location.

Die Europastadt Görlitz

The historic city of Görlitz is the tourist magnet of the city. In addition to hundreds of listed buildings, are all sorts of legends have grown up around the old town Görlitz. 3,500 listed buildings from the late Gothic, Renaissance, Baroque, Wilhelminian and Art Nouveau shape the Görlitzer cityscape.

2.6 Commercial relevance

The ADMV-Lausitz-Rally is the absolute motorsport highlight in the Lausitz and a fixed part of the sporting and event schedule in Germany.

Approximately 100 rally teams are expected, including the top drivers from all over Europe. Together with their assistants, there will be approx. 1500 persons in Boxberg/O.L., Weißwasser and within a radius of 60km. Many of them arrive some days before the start of the competition and stay until Sunday. In addition there will be approximately 600 volunteer assistants from all parts of the Federal Republic, who help things to run smoothly, and up to 100 media representatives of press, radio and TV, who report about the rally in national and international media channels. Thousands of spectators who follow the event live will constitute a framework for the rally.

In the time of the rally nearly all hotels, guest houses and other accommodations are fully booked. Also restaurants, the retail, garages and fuel stations – especially in Weißwasser – benefit from the rally. The Lausitz-Rallye is also a perfect base for image campaigns for tourism and for investors.

A lot of participants and spectators come back to the Lausitz after the rally as tourists to acquaint the "Lausitzer Seenland" and more sights.
