We will advise and make a recommendation for you after we have assessed your demands and needs. This will include the type of cover you seek together with the costs. We endeavour to place your business with insurers with adequate means to meet their obligations but cannot guarantee the solvency of any insurer. In the event of your insurer experiencing financial difficulties you may still have a liability to pay premium.

Where available, a detailed summary of an insurance policy we arrange on your behalf will be contained in a Policy Summary. We can also supply you with a specimen copy of the insurance policy prior to purchase should you request this.

If you request or require immediate cover, we can give you this information orally; however, we will still provide you with the full terms and conditions of your policy, and a letter setting out our understanding of your demands and needs, immediately after sale. Quotations are based on the information provided by you at the time of the quotation and are valid for 30 days from that date. All premiums quoted include the government’s Insurance Premium Tax at the current rate.

We only arrange insurance for policyholders based in the United Kingdom and Europe. All premium transactions are in pounds sterling or euros.

We can only arrange cover for you once we have firm instructions to do so. Cover is not in place until we have confirmed it with you in writing and/or we have issued a cover note. You must pay your premium before we can arrange cover for you. This may be either the full premium due or a deposit amount if we have agreed that the premium may be paid by instalments.

Provision of documentation by us

We will endeavour to issue your policy booklet (i.e. insurance terms and conditions) and supporting documentation on the day you arrange cover through us. In the event of your purchase being made outside of normal office hours your documentation will be issued on the next working day.

Awareness of Policy Terms

When a policy is issued you should read it carefully, as it is that document including the schedule and any Certificate of Insurance that is the basis of the insurance contract you have purchased. You should keep all policy documents for as long as a claim is possible under the policy, which may be after the expiry of the policy if you later find that an insured loss occurred while the policy was in force.

If you are in doubt over any of the policy terms or conditions, please seek our advice promptly. In particular, please look out for and be fully aware of any exclusions, limitations, conditions and/or warranties which have been applied to your insurance. Also be aware that failure to comply with your policy terms in full may result in the termination of your policy with associated charges and/or may invalidate a claim in full or in part.

2. YOUR RESPONSIBILITIES

Your duty of disclosure to Insurers (and the Insurance Act 2015)

Your insurance is based upon the information provided to the insurance company. Under the terms of the Act, before a contract of insurance is entered into you must make to an insurer “a fair presentation of the risk”.

Please take reasonable care to answer all the questions honestly and to the best of your knowledge. If you do not your policy may be cancelled, or treated as if it never existed, or your claim not fully paid.

You are reminded that it is an offence under the Road Traffic Act to make any false statements or withhold any relevant information to obtain a Certificate of Motor Insurance. Please note that under the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act you are not required to disclose convictions regarded as ‘spent’.

A fair presentation of the risk requires clear and accessible disclosure, without material misrepresentation, of every material circumstance which you as the insured know/ought to know; or, failing that, sufficient information to put a prudent insurer on notice that it needs to make further enquiries to reveal those material circumstances.

For a commercial customer, you must disclose to insurers, before the setting up or renewal of your policy is concluded, any fact or circumstance which is known to you (or which after enquiry ought to be known to you) and which is material to the risk. “Material facts” are matters or information which may influence your insurer as to the acceptability or otherwise of your risk and the terms your insurer may require. They must be disclosed at the earliest opportunity and certainly at each renewal and also applies throughout the life of a policy. If you are in any doubt as to whether any information constitutes a “material fact” you must disclose it to us or your insurer.

If any document is completed in whole or in part on your behalf, it is your responsibility to check that the answers given are true and complete. You are advised to keep copies of any correspondence or documentation sent to us. Please do consult us if you are in doubt on any aspect of this.

All statements and facts disclosed either on Proposal Forms, Statement of Facts documents, claim forms and other documents must, to the best of your ability, be full, true and accurate. Your attention is particularly drawn to the importance of the declaration and signature on any documents relating to your proposal, policy and/or claim. Any failure to disclose facts material to the insurance or any inaccuracies in your answer may invalidate your insurance cover in part or in its entirety.

Average Clause and the implications of underinsurance

Please be aware your policy may be subject to “Average”, whereby claims will be proportionally reduced if the sum insured is less than the full value at risk or where underinsurance is of a significant amount a claim could be rejected entirely. Bearing this in mind we would urge you to check the current figures to ensure that they remain adequate. The principle of Average means that if you are insured for less than the full value for that item at the time of loss, then ANY claim payment can be reduced in the proportion that the sum insured bears the full value at risk. If the underinsurance is considered significant the insurer could reject the claim entirely.

Proposal Forms

When a policy is taken out we will send you a copy of your Proposal Form or Statement of Fact which shows the information you have supplied. If you ask us to amend any answers, or add additional information we will send you a copy of the revisions. Please feel free to ask us for assistance with completion of your Proposal Form.

Provision of documentation by you

If you are required to provide supporting documentation to your insurer it is critical that this information is provided quickly. An insurer may cancel a policy if supporting information is not supplied within the time limits specified by them. We strongly recommend you use Recorded Delivery or other traceable postage method to send this information to us. We do not accept liability for failure of any delivery or postal service.

Motor insurance – “No Claims Bonus” information

Where relevant, you must provide written evidence of your no claims bonus proof within the timescales requested by your insurer. This previous policy must not have expired more than 2 years before the inception of your new policy with us and any no claims bonus earned cannot be used simultaneously on more than one vehicle at a time. Failure to provide evidence within this period will result in the insurer issuing the policy without the benefit of the no claims discount and/or cancelling the policy. You will be immediately responsible for the balance of the premium payable and any subsequent cancellation will be calculated on that adjusted premium and subject to the charges as outlined in the administrative charges section.

Understanding your policy terms

It is important that you read all your policy documentation carefully. The policy booklet (i.e. the insurance terms and conditions), policy schedule and any Certificate of Insurance are the basis of the cover you have purchased. Please make sure that you understand them and are able to follow their requirements. If you are in any doubt about the terms and conditions of the policy then contact us for clarification. Breach of any terms, conditions, limitations or warranties may result in the termination of your policy with associated charges or may invalidate a claim in full or in part.

Vehicle insurance and the Road Traffic Act

Customers are reminded that it is a criminal offence under the Road Traffic Act to leave, drive or otherwise use a vehicle on a public road without valid insurance cover being in force.

You understand that all personal data you supply must be accurate. Any information we hold about you, whether on our computer system or on paper files, will be treated as private and confidential. We will use and disclose the information we have in the normal course of administering or arranging cover on your insurance policy which may involve passing information about you to insurers, other intermediaries, risk management assessors and other third parties involved in your insurance. We may use a third party to conduct customer surveys on our behalf. In some exceptional circumstances we may also deal with other people who call us on your behalf, provided they also comply with our security checks when they call. If at any time you would prefer us to deal only with you, please call to let us know.

Motor and Home Insurance anti-fraud registers

Insurers share information with each other via the Claims and Underwriting Exchange Register and the Motor Insurance Anti-Fraud and Theft Register to aid the prevention of fraudulent claims. In the event of a claim, the information you supply on the claim form, together with any other information relating to the claim will be put on the registers.

Motor Insurance Information Centre (MIIC)

Insurers are legally required to provide details of motor insurance policies to the MIIC. The information describing your insurance cover will be added to the Motor Insurance Database (MID) to which the police and other government agencies have access. This helps the pursuance of claims following accidents and aids detection of those who are in contravention of the law by not taking out insurance. As part of the government’s Continuous Insurance Enforcement initiative it is now a legal offence to keep a vehicle without insurance unless you have notified the DVLA that your vehicle is being kept off the road and have a valid Statutory Off Road Notification (SORN). It is vital that the MID holds your correct registration number. If it is incorrectly shown on the MID you are at risk of having your vehicle seized by the Police. You can check that your correct registration number details are shown on the MID at www.askmid.com.

Credit Reference Agencies

To determine premium payment rates at quote and renewal and/or any future invitations, we will make checks on the electoral role and public data through a credit reference agency. These enquiries will be recorded but it is highly unlikely that they will affect your credit rating.

You are welcome to contact us to discuss increasing the limitations of our liability and/or varying the exclusions set out above. Please note however that an additional charge and other terms may apply should we agree to amend this clause.

4. CLAIMS

We have no authority to handle claims on behalf of insurers but can advise you on who to phone and how to make your claim. In the event of an accident which may give rise to a claim under your policy, whether you believe you are liable or not, you should notify us by calling the Claims Helpline number shown on the covering letter accompanying these terms as soon as possible. If you do not do so it may result in your insurer refusing to accept a claim in whole or in part. Where you have chosen to pay your insurance premium by instalments, we receive commission from the finance provider for introducing you to them and will be pleased to provide this information upon request.

We are committed to transparency in our relationship with you. You can at any time request information regarding any remuneration which we may have received as a result of placing your insurance business.

7. CANCELLATION OF INSURANCE POLICY

Cancellation
Please note that cancellation rights vary between insurers, and you should check your policy documentation if you are considering cancelling your policy. Your insurance contract may include a cancellation clause. In the event of cancellation, charges for our services will apply in accordance with Clauses 7 and 8 above, and any arrangement fees incurred at inception of the policy will not be refunded. The terms of your policy may allow insurers to retain the premium in full or to charge short period premiums in the event of cancellation.

Time on Risk / Short Period Charges

If you cancel your policy in the first year with a new insurer it is very likely that they will charge what is known as short period rates. This will mean that the percentage of premium charged will be greater than the percentage of elapsed time. You should ensure that you understand the total charge being made before you cancel any existing insurance policy.

Minimum and Deposit

Some classes of business charge what is known as minimum & deposit premiums. This means that the amount charged is the minimum premium underwriters will accept for the risk and there will be no return premium for early cancellation. It also means that whilst these policies are adjustable and additional premiums may be payable, on increased activity such as turnover, they do not adjust down and therefore no return premium is payable for reduced activity.

Policies Cancelled by Us or the Insurer

If your policy is cancelled by us or the insurer, for reasons such as misrepresentation, failure to disclose or failure to make payment when due, we will give you at least 7 days' notice in writing to your last address notified to us. In the event of cancellation, charges for our services will apply in accordance with Clauses 7 and 8 above, and any arrangement fees incurred at inception of the policy will not be refunded. The terms of your policy may allow insurers to limit refund of premium to the remaining period of cover left after the cancellation date.

How to cancel

To exercise your right to cancel, please contact us at the address or telephone number shown on the front of this communication. Please note we can only cancel a policy effective from the time and date of your request being confirmed.

8. OUR RIGHT TO SET OFF MONIES YOU OWE US

We shall be entitled (but not obliged) without notice to you to set off any amounts due to us from you against any amounts which we may receive on your behalf (such as claims monies, refunded premiums and other sums).

9. PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS AND REFUNDS

Unless otherwise agreed and formalised by a premium instalment plan, all premiums are due on the day cover is arranged, the date the policy is due for renewal or the date of any mid-term adjustment.

Refunds

Any refunds will be issued to you within 30 days of the date of the transaction. Most refunds are issued back to the method that original payment was made with. The minimum amount we will refund is £10.00, therefore any refund below this amount will not be given.

10. RENEWAL

Prior to the expiry of your policy where we will be inviting a renewal we (or your insurance company) may send you details of the cost and terms to renew your policy. To help protect you from an uninsured loss and to make the process of renewal easier we may automatically renew a policy and take payment by the same payment method as the previous year. We will always write to advise you before we automatically renew any policy and give you the opportunity to contact us to cancel the renewal. If your policy is not eligible for automatic renewal we may write to you prior to your renewal date to remind you that your renewal is due and to advise you how much the new premium will be. You will need to contact us to arrange your renewal.

11. HOW WE HOLD YOUR MONEY

Premiums that we collect from you are held in an insurance broking bank account specifically for the purpose of holding client money. By virtue of agreements held with insurers, we collect premiums as agent of the insurer. Once we have collected the premium from you, under the terms of our agreements with insurers, those premiums are treated as having been paid to the insurer. This gives you added protection in the event of our insolvency. Similarly, any claim money given to us by your insurer to pay you will only be deemed to have been received by you when you receive it.

Earning interest on customer premiums

We hold premiums that you pay us in our client money bank account. Under Financial Conduct Authority regulations we have to inform you that we may earn interest from money held in this account. Interest earned will not be held for the benefit of customers. We may also invest these premiums in a range of permitted designated investments as prescribed by the Financial Conduct Authority. In the event that there is any shortfall in our client money resource attributable to falls in the market value of any of these permitted designated investments we shall make provision for, and bear the cost of, any such shortfall.

Customer money passed to another organisation

In accordance with Financial Conduct Authority regulations we have to inform you that in managing or arranging your insurance requirements, we may transfer premium monies that you have paid to us to another insurance intermediary. This has no effect on your insurance arrangements with us as your broker or your insurer, or in the manner in which we hold your money as agent of your insurer as described above.

12. GOVERNING LAW

Unless specifically agreed otherwise, this agreement shall be subject to the law of England and Wales and the parties agree that any dispute arising out of it shall be subject to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the English Courts.

13. GENERAL

A failure at any time by us to enforce any right or obligation shall not be deemed to be a continuing waiver of such right or obligation.

We may freely assign or delegate all or any part of this agreement and/or the services to any third party only where such assignment or delegation ensures that your rights under this Agreement will not be prejudiced. You may not assign all or any part of this agreement without our prior consent, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed.

A person who is not a party to this agreement has no rights under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties Act) 1999 to enforce or enjoy the benefit of any term of this agreement.

The invalidity, illegality or unenforceability of any of the provisions of this agreement shall not affect the validity, legality or enforceability of any of the other provisions of this agreement.

14. VARIATION

We reserve the right to vary this agreement where we are required to do so in order to comply with any legal or regulatory obligation. We will give you reasonable notice of such changes. If we wish to amend this agreement for any other reason we shall give you not less than 21 days' notice of such variation. You shall have the option to terminate this agreement within 30 days of such notice.

(REIS) Version 4.1 (September 2023)
