

PRESS RELEASE 2

🚩 We are pleased to announce that the 2026 Wexford Rally will take place on the 12th & 13th of September 2026!

Find some key info below, with more to follow!

🚗 Wexford VW continues its long-standing support of the event, backing one of the biggest weekends in Irish motorsport and helping keep the rally tradition strong in the county.

🏠 Whites of Wexford returns as Rally HQ and will be at the centre of the weekend's activities, welcoming competitors, officials, sponsors and rally fans throughout the event.

 This year's route will feature 18 stages across both days, bringing crews to some of the county's most iconic rally roads. Saturday's action heads for the Clonroche and New Ross areas, while Sunday's stages move to the ever-popular Blackwater and Boolavogue roads.

 Crews will tackle over 204 competitive stage kilometres across the weekend, offering a demanding mix of fast, flowing sections and technical challenges that are sure to test both driver and machine.

 A compact route allows for recce to be completed in just 1.5 days across Thursday and Friday ahead of the event.

 Service for both days will be based at Wexford Racecourse, providing a central hub for teams and a great atmosphere for supporters following the rally throughout the weekend.

 The event will form part of the South East Stages Rally Championship, Midlands East Rally Championship and the Stellantis Motorsport UK/Ireland Rally Cup, ensuring strong competition right across the entry list.

More details, including entries and spectator information, will be announced soon
