The Stewards heard evidence from the following persons:

Neil Shanks submitted a written Right of Review request dated 18.10.24 to MSUK which was forwarded to the Stewards on 31.10.24, who met on 4.11.24 and decided that it was not a valid Request for Right of Review. This decision was appealed to MSUK and on 20.11.24 the Stewards were advised to hold a Right of Review hearing which took place on 11.12.24 via Zoom when Neil Shanks and James Ford presented their evidence. The Stewards referred to MSUK for further procedural guidance which took place on 20.12.24.

The Stewards decision is:

As the Review Body we have considered the information you provided at your Right of Review hearing on 11.12.24 and have decided that the additional information that you have submitted is not a significant or relevant new element to the original decision.

Reason(s) for this decision:

The information provided confirms that a road traffic incident did take place, but the Clerk of the Course had already taken this into account when he made his original decision.

The CoC also explained that he elected to revert to the original intended decision of scrubbing all penalties at this control TC2B, as detailed in Appendix 2 as submitted by yourselves.

As per C14.5.1 this decision is not subject to appeal before any further judicial body.
