

Due to printing time constraints we have to go to print with our program a few days early. As a result entries received before close of business today will be included in the seeded entry list in program. Anyone who enters after that and before Saturday 10th will be reseeded into the starters list for Sunday the 18th.

With over 95 entries received it promises to be an entertaining event. We hope to see you all there.