

Competitor Review – Ashley Speare

From: The ARA Competitor Review Court

Date: 3/23/2024

To: Car 26 at Rally in the 100 Acre Wood – Ashley Speare

Time: 1100 CDT

The ARA, having received information from numerous persons, have decided to convene a Court under GCR 5.13 to review the conduct of Ashley Speare, ARA license holder and USAC Member. The Court convened to review the available information and conduct interviews with the relevant persons.

Time (fact): 3/22/2024 1400 (approximately)

ARA Court: Preston Osborn, Alan Perry, and Justin Pritchard

Findings: The Court investigated messages, emails, and social media posts from Ms. Speare to other persons. They also reviewed her actions and conduct during the Rally in the 100 Acre Wood.

Though some of the comments and messages may be uncouth, it wasn't at a level considered unsportsmanlike or a violation of the GCRs.

Decision: No further sanction or punishment will be levied against Ms. Speare based on the review.

Reason: After considering the available evidence for the review, it was found that her actions did not warrant penalty.

Competitors are reminded that they have the right to appeal certain decisions of the ARA, in accordance with Part IX of the USAC Rulebook.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'P. Osborn', with a long horizontal flourish extending to the right.

Preston Osborn
ARA Competition Director