The Ronnie Hawe Monaghan Stages Rally 2026

Refuelling area, Grahams H18 KF51

Refuelling area will open for fuel drop off from 7.30am – 9 am on Sunday August 2nd

Remaining fuel / empty drums to be collected from 5pm – 6.30 pm on Sunday August 2nd

No fuel to be dropped off at any other time or while the refuelling area is live.

Please make sure you have the correct fuel drums and pumps, no unapproved containers or funnels will be accepted at drop off.

All fuel drums are to be clearly marked with the competing cars number and phone number of the person responsible for dropping off / collecting them after event.

Make sure to inform your competitor where you have left their fuel, tent 1, 2, 3, 4 etc. To avoid any confusion or delays when refuelling.

Strictly no spectator access at anytime, only competitors and designated service crew performing refuelling duties are permitted to enter the site.

Anyone authorised to enter the refuelling area must wear the correct PPE, balaclava, long sleeves, gloves, long trousers (no short sleeves or short trousers) and correct footwear, as per the MI regulations.

Please check out Motorsport Ireland website for regulations, link below
