STEWARDS' DECISION No. 3.

From: The Stewards

Date: 18.10.2026

To: Csaba Pallag-Bozsák (team member of Race Point Team Kft.)
and Róbert Szabolcs (team representative Proex Motorsport Egyesület)

Time: 11:00

The Stewards received a verbal report from the Organizer (Zoltán Bognár, CHAIRMAN OF ORGANIZING COMMITTEE) concerning an incident involving physical contact by a Competitor and a team member of the Hungarian Rallycross Championship. The Stewards heard the concerned parties and have considered the following matter and determine the following:

Competitor: Csaba Pallag-Bozsák (team member of Race Point Team Kft.) and Róbert Szabolcs (team representative Proex Motorsport Egyesület)

Time: 18:00

Session: After Heat 2

Fact: A team member and a team representative were involved in a physical altercation with each other, during which the team member also physically assaulted a member of the race track security staff

Offence: Misconduct – Breach of Article 12.2.1.I of the FIA International Sporting Code and Article 17.28 of the Sporting Regulations of the Hungarian Rallycross Championship, with reference to Appendix B to the FIA International Sporting Code.

Decision: Fine of EUR 1,000 for the team member of Race Point Team Kft.
and fine of EUR 750 for the team representative of Proex
Motorsport Egyesület

Reason: The Stewards received a verbal report from the Organiser concerning a physical altercation between two team members/representatives in the paddock area following Heat 2 of the Hungarian Rallycross Championship.

According to the information provided by the Organiser, the incident was reported to him by circuit security personnel. No video footage of the incident was available.

The Stewards heard the Organiser and both individuals concerned and assessed the information and statements presented during the hearing.

Having considered the available evidence, the Stewards determined that Mr Csaba Pallag-Bozsák, a team member of Race Point Team Kft., and Mr Róbert Szabolcs, a representative of Proex Motorsport Egyesület, had been involved in a physical altercation.

The Stewards further determined that Mr Pallag-Bozsák had also physically assaulted a member of the circuit security staff during the incident.

The Stewards considered that the conduct of both individuals constituted Misconduct in breach of Article 12.2.1.1 of the FIA International Sporting Code and Article 17.28 of Sporting Regulations of the Hungarian Rallycross Championship. Appendix B to the International Sporting Code expressly identifies physical assault, including punching, hitting and kicking, as conduct falling within the scope of Misconduct.

In determining the appropriate penalties, the Stewards considered the individual involvement of each person, the seriousness of the conduct and the circumstances of the incident.

The Stewards considered the additional physical assault against a member of the circuit security staff to be an aggravating circumstance in respect of Mr Pallag-Bozsák .

Accordingly, the Stewards determined that a fine of EUR 1,000 for Mr Pallag-Bozsák and a fine of EUR 750 for Mr Szabolcs were appropriate and proportionate penalties, taking into account the respective conduct of each individual and the need to deter similar incidents in the future.

The Stewards further decided to refer the circumstances of the incident to the Hungarian-Off-Road Commission for its consideration.

In accordance with Article 12.8 of the FIA International Sporting Code, the fines shall be paid within 48 hours of their notification. Any delay in making payment may entail Suspension during the period a fine remains unpaid.

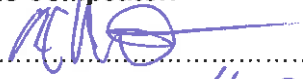

Competitors are reminded that they have the right to appeal certain decisions of the Stewards, in accordance with Article 15 of the FIA International Sporting Code and Chapter 5 of the FIA Judicial and Disciplinary Rules, within the applicable time limits.
