MANX INTERNATIONAL CLASSIC TRIAL 2026

GENERAL INFORMATION FOR SPECTATOR'S

SPECTATORS ARE VERY WELCOME TO OUR INTERNATIONAL EVENT & WE HOPE THE INFORMATION PROVIDED HERE ENABLES YOU TO GET THE BEST OUT OF YOUR WEEKEND.

- Spectator's are welcome to view the action at any section location with the exception of Ballahimmin & Cronk Aashen (Groups 9 & 11 on Day 1) due to access difficulties and livestock
- Spectator's are also welcome to view the ceremonial starts at Peel Quayside (adjacent the House of Manannan Museum) on Day 1 and Mooragh Promenade, Ramsey on Day 2
- Directions to all locations are given in the 'Maps & Directions' folder of this App – please also see the Access & Viewing Information in this App which contains What3Words references for all section locations together with the approximate times for each section to open - it should take roughly 3.25 hours for all competitors to pass through a section.
- We would encourage all spectator's to please park carefully and not block any access or impede traffic
- If you are bringing a dog to the event can you please keep it on a lead to ensure it does not upset or endanger livestock
- SPECTATOR'S ON MOTORBIKES MUST NOT FOLLOW THE ROUTE – The route includes stretches of Private Land and other restricted locations where only competitors and designated officials have been granted access – Please obey these restrictions to maintain the availability of this land for events
- Due to the recent dry spell please be aware of the risk of wildfires affecting the plantations, heathland & upland areas. No fires, barbeques or camping stoves are permitted in these areas; Smoking is prohibited in these areas; Any smoke or fire should be reported immediately to the Fire Service by calling 999
- Spectator's are advised to exercise care when moving around the venues and to obey all signage. Particular care should be exercised within plantations where you should avoid walking beneath leaning or hung-up trees
- Polly's catering van will be sited at the lunch stop on both days where Spectator's can obtain drinks and snacks
- If you have any queries please email the Manx Trials Club at manxtrials@aol.com or come along to the signing on evening at the Manx Legion Club on Friday 28th August
