COMUNICATION No. 1

TCR Eastern Europe - races

According to the Bulletin to the Supplementary regs both races of the TCR EE will be organised together with TCR Endurance Series. The grid of TCR EE will be positioned before TCR Endurance on the starting grid.

Start of the races:

Start of the both races will be standing (1x1 formation) with a gap between each grid of 3 rows. Only one signal to the start for both grids will be given by extinguishing all red lights.

Finish of the race:

After 25 minutes from the start of the race, a message "LEADER AT THE FINAL LAP" will be displayed on the timing screens/electronic communication system provided by the Promoter.

All actually competing drivers will finish the race under the Hungarian national flag at the control line. End of the race will be signalised by the message "CHEQUERED FLAG FOR THE LEADER" on the timing screens/electronic communication system provided by the Promoter. This message will inform all drivers that a winner of the race has crossed the control line, the rest of the drivers will continue the race and cross the control line to complete the scheduled duration of the race.

After the finish of the race, a winner of the TCR EE race and all drivers must take a cooling lap. During this cooling lap it is strictly forbidden to drive a car at the racing line with non-race speed. Any slow cars must respect the blue flag. At the end of this lap, all cars must enter the pit lane and proceed without stopping to the Parc Fermé. Location of the Parc Fermé for TCR EE is in the working lane in front of the pit garages 40 – 48.

Any driver, who will not respect these instructions leading to the safe and orderly conduct of the Event, will be referred to the Stewards.
