Consumer Insurance (Disclosure & Representations) Act 2012

It is your responsibility to provide complete and accurate information to insurers when you take out your insurance, and to notify the insurer of any changes to the information provided, during the period of cover. It is important that you ensure that all statements on your schedule and certificate and other documents are complete and accurate to the best of your knowledge and belief. Failure to disclose any information or change of circumstances to your insurers could invalidate your insurance cover and could mean that part or all of a claim may not be paid. If you are in any doubt as to the relevance of any information you should disclose it.

What do I do now?

Please check that the information is correct if it needs amending please call or correct and return it to us. The premium calculation is based upon your answers given to date and may change with any further information or declarations you provide.
