Floor Level Compensation Method

Floor level irregularities can significantly affect the accuracy of camber and caster measurements on a vehicle's front axle. To counteract these issues, the Floor Level Compensation (FLC) Method is used. This method ensures that any unevenness of the floor does not influence the measurement results.

Venue: Jarama RACE Date: 01/10/2026

FR Left
Camber
0.1°

Caster
0.1°

FR Right
Camber
-0.1°

Caster
0.1°

RR Left

RR Right

© FIA Technical Department