The following statement regarding the running of RX1e at World RX of Germany at the Estering has been issued conjointly by the Rallycross Promoter and the FIA:

“The investigation into the cause of the fire during World RX of United Kingdom at Lydden Hill on 21 July is ongoing. Whilst a significant amount of data and information has been gathered and analysed, the FIA has decided – on the grounds of safety and in order for the investigation to continue without delay – to postpone the RX1e round at Germany’s Estering, originally scheduled for 19-20 August.

World RX of Germany will still go ahead with the concluding rounds of RX2e, Euro RX1 and Euro RX3, where all three titles will be decided.”
