All competitors are reminded of the following procedures related to administrative check, scrutineering, and the official photoshoot:

- Administrative check:

1. A valid SAMF competition license must be presented.
2. The vehicle registration document (Istimara) must be presented. The vehicle must be:
  - Registered under the driver's name, or
  - Accompanied by an official authorization letter if not.
3. Drivers holding a competition license issued outside Saudi Arabia must present a No Objection Letter from their ASN.
The driver must personally attend and complete the registration process.

- Scrutineering:

1. Vehicles must arrive fully prepared for scrutineering, with all required stickers and decals properly placed prior to inspection.
2. Drivers must bring their racing suits and helmets to scrutineering.
3. All vehicles must remain in the garage area after passing scrutineering until the start of the second day.
4. Leaving the venue after scrutineering with the vehicle is strictly prohibited.

- Official Photoshoot:

- 1- Drivers must arrive at registration wearing their racing suits, as official headshots will be taken immediately after completing the registration process on Thursday.
