Rally Office is located in Callaghan's Forklifts, in North West Business Park, Collooney, Eircode F91 E7WH.

Service Park Area:

Please take note of a few important details relating to the Service Park area:

The Service Area is located at Glenview natural stone quarry

GPS co-ordinates are 54.097036, -8.177206

The Service Area Manager is Kevin Coogan (087) 684 9894

There will be no access to the Service Park on Saturday. Gates will open at 6am on Sunday 15th February 2026. Only vehicles with the Service Sticker provided at sign-on will be permitted to enter. There will be strictly no public access to the Service Park, spectators are advised to go to the Regroup area in Arigna Village.

We have attached a map for service trucks to get to the Service Park, this is the only route to be used as it is a remote location, with many roads not suitable for larger vehicles, we therefore urge you to obey this route. Crews Servicing together should travel in Convoy to the Service Area and arrive at the same time for the best possible chance of being accommodated.

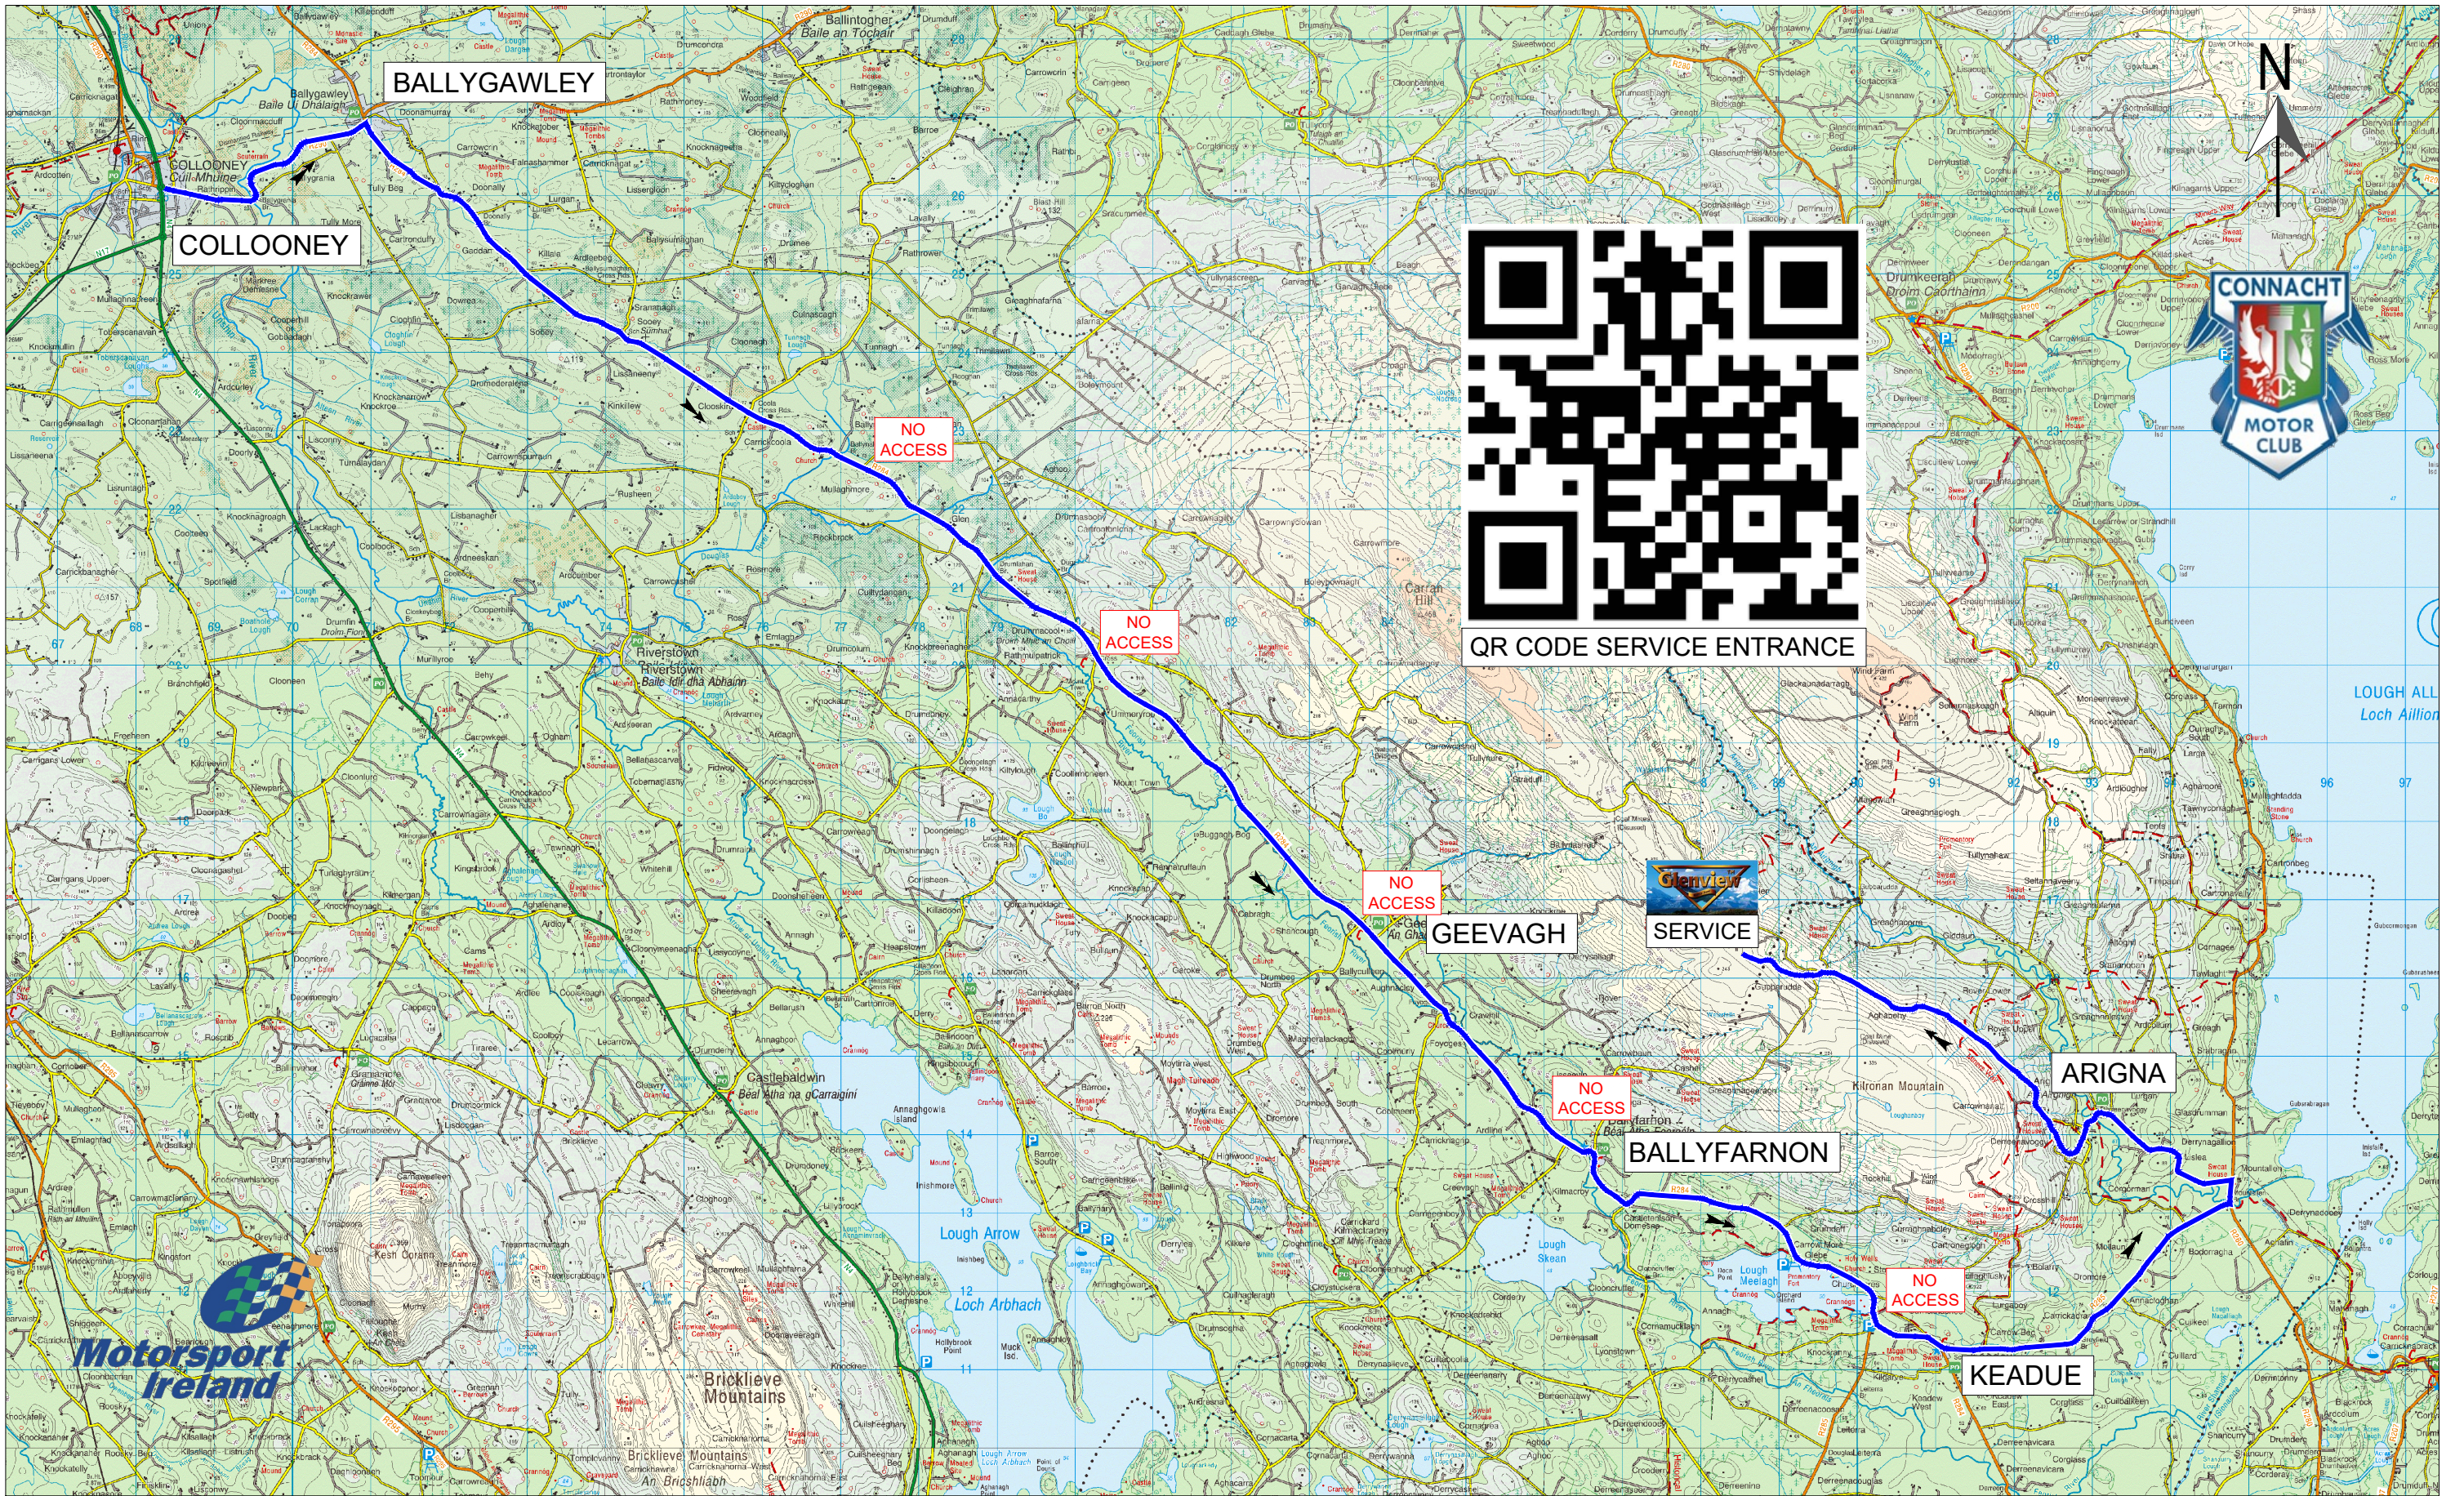

There will be strictly no access with Trailers, no exceptions. Fuel should be dropped off at the refuel area on your way up to set up your service area. There is a 30kmph speed limit on this avenue to / from service within the quarry entrance. All Service Crews should aim to be in place by 8am.

There will be toilet facilities and a Chip Van on site.

Please note that groundsheets are mandatory for the Service Area and fuel or oil spills must be addressed by crews immediately. Please have a 3 x 5 metre groundsheet [in good condition] available. Failure to co-operate will mean exclusion.

All crews are reminded that any abuse or threatening behaviour towards a Marshall or Official will be dealt with in accordance with the current MI Yearbook.
