Dear Sir,

Road Traffic Act 1988 - Section 33
The Motor Vehicles (Competitions and Trials) Regulations 1969
Cambrian Rally 26th October 2024.

I thank you for your recent communication, and advise that you may accept this letter as authorisation by the County Council, under Section 33 of the Road Traffic Act 1988, for competitors authorised by the Organisers of the above Rally (hereinafter referred to as the "Organisers") to drive motor vehicles over the above mentioned public rights of way shown on the attached map in the course of the Rally subject to (in addition to the consent from the owner or occupier of any land over which they run) the conditions specified below:-

1. Any crossing point of a special stage with a footpath, must be marshalled and signed to protect the public using the rights of way, i.e. to ensure that no conflict of user arises, or that if it does persons involved are suitably warned of the danger.
2. Any damage to the public footpaths which may arise in consequence of the holding of the Rally will be made good to the satisfaction of the County Council at the expense of the Organisers, or they will reimburse to the County Council the cost of making good any damage.
3. The County Council will be indemnified by the Organisers of the Rally against any claims or damages that may arise in consequence of the granting of this consent.
4. Details of any complaints, damage or claims in respect of the public footpaths are notified promptly, in writing, by the Organisers of the Rally to the County Council and the results of any investigations which the Organisers shall make in that connection to test the validity or otherwise of such complaints, damages or claims shall be made available to the County Council with such records as may be relevant.
5. The Organisers of the Rally shall before commencement of the event, verify that each competitor has the usual Third Party Liability insurance in respect of the risk of death, injury, accident or damage to members of the public, using the public footpaths affected, and the Organisers shall indemnify the County Council in respect of any claims made against the County Council in respect of any such liability and shall have or obtain its own insurance to cover such indemnity and liability to the County Council.
6. The Organisers carry a current insurance policy in respect of Public Liability which indemnifies the County Council against legal liability for personal injury to or death or damage to the property of a third party such as injury, death or damage arising in consequence of the granting of this consent and further that the limit of indemnity is not less than £10,000,000.00 (£10m) for each and every claim.

I already have details of your insurance.

It will be necessary for the organisers to ensure marshalling/safety control at points where public rights of way are affected by the rally route, as indicated on the enclosed plans.
