

DMSB-Schalt-Kart-Cup (DSKC) – KZ2

from : The Stewards to : Representative of the Competitor
SP Motorsport

Decision-No.: 24

DECISION

The Stewards determined that a necessary hearing with the Competitor SP Motorsport and Driver #440 Enzo Bol after the Final of the DSKC could not be held due to the unauthorized departure despite knowledge of involvement in an incident. Due to this fact, which is to be considered as an infringement, the Stewards take the following decision:

Entrant concerned : SP MOTORSPORT (KNAF-Bewerberlizenz 47253)

Driver concerned : #440 Enzo BOL (KNAF-Fahrerlizenz ITE 42526)

Decision : Fine of 400 Euro

Session concerned : DSKC FINAL

Infringement Article : Art. 18.3 DMSB Event Regulations, ISC Art. 12.2.1.g, ISC Art. 9.15.1

applied article : ISC Art. 12.3, ISC Art. 12.4.1.c, VR Art. 18.(3)

Reason : During the technical inspection after the above-mentioned session (last session of the event for the Competitor), Competitor #440 was found to have a rear bumper that did not comply with the rules. The competitor was then informed by the technical commissioner at the parc ferme that there was a deviation from the rules and that an investigation would be carried out by the Stewards. A corresponding document from the scrutineers was signed by the competitor. When the Stewards summoned the competitor in writing to a hearing, the Competitor was no longer present at the venue.

According to the ISC, a competitor is obliged to cooperate in an investigation concerning him. By leaving the venue prematurely, the competitor has evaded the hearing ordered by the Stewards. It is irrelevant whether the information is given to a team member in writing by an Official and the team member then does not pass it on internally.

Entrants are reminded that they have the right to appeal certain decisions of the Stewards, in accordance with article 15 of the FIA Int. Sporting Code, CIK-FIA General Prescriptions and art. 28 of DMSB General Event Regulations, within the applicable time limit.
