The Stewards have received a report from the Chief Scrutineer and, having summoned and heard the competitor of Car No 61 (Samir Ahmad)

Facts: Vehicle measurements recorded during post race scrutineering differed from those declared in the PF.

Offence: Breach of FIA Appendix J – Article 258-1/2 PF Regulations.

Decision: Disqualified from Round 2 of the Saudi Toyota Time Attack Championship.

Following the race 2, Car No 61 underwent post race scrutineering, during which the actual vehicle measurements were compared with the information declared by the competitor in the PF. The measurements recorded were found to differ from those declared. The Stewards considered the Chief Scrutineer's report and the information provided during the hearing. As PF classification and technical compliance depend on the accuracy of the declared information, the Stewards determined that Car No 61 was not in compliance with the applicable PF Regulations and therefore imposed disqualification from Round 2.

Competitors are reminded that they have the right to appeal certain decisions of the Stewards, in accordance with Article 15 of the FIA International Sporting Code and Chapter IV of the FIA Judicial and Disciplinary Rules, within the applicable time limit.
