The Stewards have received a report from the Clerck of the Corse, and having summoned the competitor of car No 70 (Saeed Alghamdi)

Facts: Failure to enter the pit lane and continued driving on track under red flag conditions.

Offence: Infringement of Guidelines and Penalties No 11.

Decision: Disqualified from Round 2 of the Saudi Toyota Time Attack Championship.

The red flag was initially displayed following an incident at turn 1, where marshals were engaged in the recovery of a car. Despite the red flag, the competitor did not enter the pit lane and continued on track. After the red flag was displayed again, the competitor continued for a further two laps, including at high speed, without entering the pit lane. The competitor only returned to the pit lane after being shown the black flag. After hearing the competitor, the Stewards noted his explanation that he was uncertain whether he was required to enter the pit lane after the first red flag was withdrawn. However, once the red flag was displayed again, the requirement to immediately reduce speed and return to the pit lane was clear. Considering the repeated failure to comply with the red flag, the continued circulation for multiple laps, and the presence of marshals conducting a vehicle recovery on the circuit, the Stewards considered the infringement to represent a serious safety breach and determined that disqualification from Round 2 was the appropriate penalty.

Competitors are reminded that they have the right to appeal certain decisions of the Stewards, in accordance with Article 15 of the FIA International Sporting Code and Chapter IV of the FIA Judicial and Disciplinary Rules, within the applicable time limit.
